From the Principal's Desk. . .

It is a matter of great privilege to be heading this prestigious institute of teacher training that has been imparting quality education and training young minds to become the mentors for the next generation of pupils. There is no better way to serve than to mould the tender minds and channelize their energies towards nation building. This college is a finest example of a blended mode of education with theoretical discourses and a rigorous practical teaching capsule that harnesses the potential and taps the talents of the student educators enabling them to be prepared to take on the responsibility of being a teacher.

The college also offers ample opportunities the students who are provided with platforms to showcase their virtuosity and multifaceted skills from time to time. The physical fitness and astuteness too comes to the fore when the students are actively involved in the sports events that take place annually. The college's reputation as one of the oldest and best institutes rely on the fact that the academic performances of the students in examinations and in implementation practices have culminated into highest scores. The teachers in the college represent all faculties and are the most accomplished professionals with many years of experience and expertise, working relentlessly for the betterment of the students and the college.

I wish the future aspirants who are seeking admission to this institution the very best of luck. We welcome you to this college of teacher education and hope to have another fruitful session with you all.

 Regards,

*Arti Verma
Principal*

The evaluation system of the student-teachers has the following two components:

1. Continuous and Comprehensive Assessment (CCA) accounting for 20% (Internal Evaluation) of the total marks assigned to a particular Programme.
2. End-Semester Examination (ESE) accounting for the remaining 80% (External Evaluation) of the total marks assigned to a particular Programme.

Continuous and Comprehensive Assessment (CCA):

This would include the following components:

Classroom Attendance- Each student-teacher shall have to attend a minimum of 80% lectures/Tutorial/ Practical and a minimum of 90% in School Internship Programme (Cycle I and II) A student-teacher having less than 80% attendance will not be allowed to appear in the End Semester Examination (ESE). However, the exemption from 80% attendance will be given to those participating in prescribed co-curricular activities (e.g. NCC, NSS, Youth Festivals, Sports etc.) to the extent of 20% (making the necessary attendance as 55% in these cases). The claim for this exemption should be supported by authenticated certificate from the concerned University/College authorities. The student-teachers having attendance between 79% and 70% attendance may apply for exemption on a prescribed form accompanied by clear reasons for absence to the competent authority. Those student teachers getting the exemptions, except for those getting exemptions for co-curricular activities will not be entitled for getting the CCA marks for classroom attendance as given below.

Classroom Attendance Incentive: Those having greater than 80% attendance (for those participating in co-curricular activities, 20% will be added to percent attendance) will be awarded CCA marks as follows:

>80% but < 84%	01 Mark
>85% but > 89%	02 Marks
>90% but > 94%	04 Marks
>95%	05 Marks

The marks on the basis of attendance (in case of courses with a total of 50 marks) will be awarded as follows:

> 80% but ≤ 86%	1 Mark
> 87% but ≤ 93%	2 Marks
> 94%	3 Marks

Mid Term Test:-There will be One Mid-Term Test, after 60 teaching Days (10 weeks) covering at least 50% of the syllabus covered so far. The Continuous and Comprehensive Assessment (CCA) will have the following components:

Sr. No.	Component	Courses with 100 Marks	Courses with 50 Marks
A.	Classroom Attendance	05	03
B.	Mid-term Test / Theory Assignments	15	07
Total Marks (CCA)	20 -10	20	10

End Semester Examination:

The remaining 80% of the final marks assigned to a student in a Programme will be on the basis of an End Semester Examination (ESE) that will be for three hours and one and half hour duration depending upon the marks assigned to the Paper. The ESE will be covering the whole syllabus of the B.Ed. Programme. It shall be necessary for a student-teacher to pass separately in Internal and External Examinations. A Student-teacher must obtain not less than 40% of the total number of marks in each Programme and 45% marks in aggregate of all the prescribed B.Ed. Programme.

School Internship Programme (20 Week)
