DAY-5 (01-11-2025)

On November 1, 2025, an Inter-College Declamation Contest was successfully organized at Government College of Teacher Education, Dharamshala under the joint auspices of the School Internship Programme Committee (SIP) and the Commerce Club as part of the observance of Vigilance Awareness Week 2025.

The event was graced by the Hon'ble Principal, Prof. Aarti Verma, as the Chief Guest, whose esteemed presence enhanced the significance of the occasion.

Total of 11 students from Government College of Teacher Education, Dharamshala (District Kangra), Government College Dharamshala, Government College Matour, Government College Shahpur, Government College Takipur, and Government College Nagrota Bagwan participated in the competition. The participants delivered insightful and impactful speeches on the theme "Vigilance and Shared Responsibility."

The panel of judges comprised respected faculty members - Prof. Preeti Prabha, Prof. Yuvraj Singh, and Prof. Reeta Devi - who evaluated the performances with fairness and precision before declaring the results. Notably, female participants secured all the top three positions, showcasing exceptional oratory skills and thoughtful expression.

Artika Chaudhary from Government College, Nagrota Bagwan, won the First Prize for her well-reasoned and powerful speech. Kaushiki Katoch from Government College, Dharamshala, secured the Second Prize, while Ankita from Government College, Takipur, bagged the Third Prize.

In her address, Principal Prof. Aarti Verma emphasized that the objective of such competitions is not merely to achieve top positions but to foster self-confidence, clarity of thought, and a sense of social responsibility among students. She highlighted that people often remain silent against corruption until it directly affects their personal rights or dignity. Therefore, nurturing a collective sense of accountability and anti-corruption awareness is essential for a progressive society. She also advised students to adopt self-discipline, dedication to duty, and holistic well-being by incorporating yoga and pranayama into their daily lives.

The event was efficiently and gracefully conducted by Dr. Atul Acharya, who concluded the ceremony with a vote of thanks, expressing heartfelt gratitude to all participating colleges, faculty members, and the panel of judges for their valuable presence and contribution to the success of the event.
